COUNTRY ORIENTATION TOPICS

Remember that details received from past participants and/or international students are subjective. They can provide you with a good guideline of what to expect but every experience is unique and program details may differ during your time abroad.

GENERAL COUNTRY ISSUES:

PACKING
- Luggage: suitcases, backpacks, etc.
- What to take, send or leave. How much? (YOU have to carry it).
- Things to bring that you wouldn't normally think of bringing -- e.g. photos of family and friends from home. Photos of Irvine. Gifts for new friends, host family, etc.

FINANCIAL
- Budgeting for your time abroad, how much to bring and in what form
- Accessing your money: ATMs, credit cards, etc.
- Banking, using a checking account, exchanging money, etc.

HOST CULTURE
- Crucial "no-no's" in host culture
- Important manners, acceptable behavior, appropriate dress, gestures to use or avoid
- Time and punctuality
- Eye contact with strangers
- Major holidays: Different from in the U.S.? Celebrated differently?
- Role of religion in daily life
- What do they think of Americans?
- Historical relationship between U.S. and host country?
- One or two things you really should know about the host country’s past

CULTURAL ADJUSTMENT AND WELL-BEING
- Illness/ Depression/ Loneliness/ Anxiety
- Support services abroad (counseling, study centers, clubs, continued resources here at UCI)
- Safety concerns and tips
- Keeping a journal
- Communicating with home: email, phones, postal system reliable? Note: Limiting your contact with home may allow you more time to engage with locals and with your host culture, which could enhance your experience.
- Yes, they are different, they are supposed to be!

PROGRAM-SPECIFIC ISSUES:

ARRIVAL AND START-UP
- Where will you arrive? How do you get to the Study Center or housing?
- Who will be your primary program contacts? What can you expect from them?
- Orientation – What will happen? How long?

More on Reverse!
ACADEMICS - FOREIGN UNIVERSITY OPERATION
- Choosing and enrolling in classes
- Grading system
- Communicating with your Academic Counselor at UCI
- What’s different: class structure, assignments and exams, relationship between professors and students, libraries, where to find books, other resources, etc.
- Access to and need for computers
- Academic dishonesty policies and disciplinary actions still apply when you're abroad.

DAILY LIFE
- Housing options: contracts, who to live with (family, Americans, locals, etc.), distance to school
- Weather, Clothing
- Health and health insurance: where to find health care (know before you need it!)
- Food and drink: what’s common, where can you find it.
- Local transportation, how to get around

STUDENT LIFE
- What do people do in their free time: activities, recreation, leisure
  - Note: Taking time to interact with locals will enhance your experience (do internships/volunteer work, etc.)
- Relationships: how to make friends, dating, visiting a friends family
- Sex, contraceptives, and AIDS
- Study Center services and activities, what you can expect

NOTES:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

\due.uci.edu/due/Files/SAC/CIE/ORIENTAT/COUNTRY/TOPICS.DOC 10/5/16